

From Rabbi Landau

The renowned Tzaddik, Reb Zusha, was on his death bed, crying at the thought of his imminent demise. Surprised by their Rebbe's reaction, his students who were gathering around tried to calm him, saying that such a Tzaddik need not be afraid, for the Rebbe is guaranteed to go straight to Heaven and has no reason to fear the outcome of his Heavenly judgment.

Reb Zusha turned to them and explained that he did not fear that when he arrived at the Heavenly Court to account for his actions they would say to him “why weren’t you like a Moshe or a Rabbi Akiva?” “I am worried,” he said, “that they will say to me, why weren’t you a Reb Zusha?”

Everyone has their individual qualities and strengths that they were blessed with at birth.

These are the unique tools that allow us to become great. By using these talents properly, in the way that they were given to be used, we are showing appreciation for having received them—and this is our way of serving Hashem. Reb Zusha was a Tzaddik who was fully aware of his righteous deeds, but he nevertheless feared that he did not live up to the great potential that Hashem had given him, and for that reason he began to cry, because he knew that even someone great has the potential to be greater. Can we really say that we are fulfilling our potential in life? Are we becoming the person that Hashem enabled us to be? These are the questions that we must answer as we face Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur. G-d’s decision regarding the quality of our lives in 5774 will greatly depend on the answers we give to these questions. If we are truly honest with ourselves, we can work out what we are missing and where we need to go in order to become who we were born to be. As a result, G-d will bless us with a happy and healthy year so that we may live up to our potential.

Shana Tova,

Rabbi Joel Landau

Welcome, Rabbi Landau

We welcomed Rabbi Joel Landau and Rebbetzin Johni Landau in May. In just a few months, Rabbi Landau has brought new energy, urgency, and professionalism to our community. He is a passionate, experienced leader and counselor who has already begun to make a positive impact. Since his arrival, there have been larger crowds and more spirited singing during our Shabbat and weekday services. His davening and d'rashas are inspiring, his shiurim are intellectually stimulating, and his ability to interact with children and integrate them into the service is superb. Rabbi Landau has a clear vision of how to make Adath Israel a destination for Bay Area Jews for years to come. If you have not yet spoken with Rabbi Landau, please do call him today to introduce yourself: (415) 710-9925

Brenna Berger

THE PRESCHOOL IS NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR THIS SCHOOL YEAR

The Brenna Berger Adath Israel Preschool provides high quality early childhood and Jewish education in an Israeli style for children two through five years old. The preschool is named in honor of Brenna Berger Z"l, daughter and sister to Bob, Esther, and Melany Berger. Brenna was a teacher who loved children, music, and warm interpersonal relationships. These values are reflected in the design, artwork and everyday ethos of our school.

We are home to many Jewish families, of American, Israeli and Russian origin, and are proud of our integration of a Jewish curriculum with a general curriculum that supports both child development and Jewish identity. Also, we are a bilingual English-Hebrew preschool. The preschool supports working parents by providing a program from 8:30 am to 6:00 pm. Discounts are available to Adath Israel member families. Please contact me to tour our beautiful facility.
